

MIMI JONES

BASSIST, VOCALIST & COMPOSER

If Mimi Jones' sound could be summarized into a few words, it would best be described as, a delicate fusion of traditional & contemporary jazz, eclectic soul, funk, and rock.

As a multi-talented bassist, vocalist, educator and composer, Mimi plays an array of genres and has studied with masters such as Lisle Atkinson, Barry Harris, Milt Hinton, Dr. Billy Taylor, Justin Dicioccio and Linda McKnight.

Her latest album, Balance, released in February 2014, features Marvin Sewell, Miki Hayama, Luis Perdomo, Enoch Smith Jr., Camille Thurman, Ingrid Jensen, Justin Faulkner, Shirazette Tinnin, Sean Harkness, and Mala Waldron.

Mimi has shared the stage with artists such as Ravi Coltrane, Rachel Z, Sean Jones, Kenny Barron, Ingrid Jensen, Diane Reeves, Lizz Wright, Roy Hargrove, Toshi Reagan, Tia Fuller Quartet and the Terri Lyne Carrington's Mosaic Project which received a Grammy in 2012, to name a few.

As a solo artist, Mimi performs with the “Mimi Jones Band,” at revered venues nationally and internationally. She is also a US Jazz ambassador having performed in over 12 countries, within South America, Caribbean Islands, and Africa. Mimi's talents have also been recognized by the commercial music industry from likes of Beyonce Knowles, Frank Ocean, and the Fugees.

In 2009, she released her debut album “A New Day” which boasts original compositions that are seamlessly tied together by her sultry voice.

Mimi is currently working on a musical/environmental project with pianist/composer Arco Iris Sandoval, entitled “The D.O.M.E. Experience.” To find out more about Mimi Jones visit mimijonesmusic.com or hotttonemusic.com.
