

What people are saying about Camille...

Artists

"Camille has a warm and beautiful sound...a creative improviser. She swings, has good time and plays with taste. Keep your ears on this young lady!"

-Russell Malone, Grammy Winning Guitarist

"Look out for this fresh new voice on the New York scene. As a saxophonist, flutist, vocalist and composer, Camille is versatile and deeply rooted in the tradition. Get ready world...Camille Thurman has it all."

-Tia Fuller, Jazz Saxophonist

"Camille's a very versatile talent to watch out for..."

-Luis Perdomo, Jazz Pianist

Media

"Pianist Janice Friedman[s]... piece resonated with an aura of Benny Golson-era Jazz Messengers and featured a wonderful gutbucket tenor spotlight from ...Camille Thurman. One of the evening's high points occurred when trombonist Deborah Weisz...launched into "First Light"... [Weisz's] solo elicited a no-holds-barred tenor tirade from Thurman ..."

-Chuck Obuchowski, Special to The Connecticut Courant

Q: "You're a present day woman in jazz. Who are some other women that listeners should look out for?"

A: "There's so many others... [A] young sister – her name is Camille Thurman – she plays tenor saxophone. She's a little younger, but she's one of my mentees..."

-Andre Lamar, DoverPost.Com (Interview w/ Tia Fuller)